

2013 Dedication

Mrs. Hughes

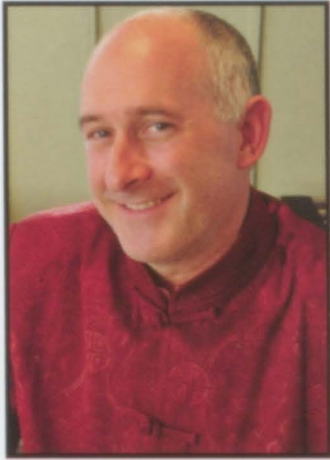

This year the class of 2013 would like to dedicate the yearbook to a woman who has helped us make it through our four years at Gould. She was there through the good and bad, no matter what time of day. I want to thank her for all her dedication and effort she gave to the Gould community. She was and will be the second mother to many of us. A woman who would drop everything that was going on, leave her problems behind to help us. Selfless and caring for others, she has made an impact in my heart and will be greatly missed. Mrs. Hughes, women like you are hard to find and we want to thank you for everything that you have done for us in every way possible, and even though words are not enough to express our appreciation, we want you to know that the class of 2013 loves you and will never forget you.

Pete; I'd like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunities that I've had at Gould. This school has completely changed me for the better. Thank you to all the friends I've made, all the good times I've had, and the experiences that we've shared.

Paul; Thank you to my mom and dad for letting me take the biggest step of my life. It has been an amazing three years and I know what I have learned here will help me in college. I would like to also thank my whole family for supporting me with all of my decisions. I have had some of the best times of my life with the friends that I have made and I am sure the good times will keep on rolling.

Thank you so much to my Parents, my siblings, my family, my friends and, of course, my teachers. Without your support I would never have come this far, or become the person I have. I appreciate your willingness to go out of your way to help me, laugh with me and share your favorite hobbies with me. You all have helped me pass classes, helped me through hard times and, above all, taught me to live my life to the fullest. I don't think I could put into words how grateful I am for everything you have all done. Thanks for making these last four years an awesome experience for me!

You cannot stay on the summit forever; you have to come down again. So why bother in the first place? Just this: What is above knows what is below, but what is below does not know what is above. One climbs, one sees. One descends, one sees no longer, but one has seen. There is an art of conducting oneself in the lower regions by the memory of what one saw higher up. When one can no longer see, one can at least still know.

TO MY PRECIOUS,
GUESS HOW MUCH I LOVE YOU?
I'M SO PROUD OF YOU CURLY-Q!
I'LL EAT YOU UP I LOVE YOU SO!
AND NOW
LET THE RUMPUS BEGIN!

Sadie,

There aren't many people who are as determined to succeed as you. From waving your pom-poms while being tossed into the air (BE AGGRESSIVE!) to training your 4-H sheep to jump over hay bales, we have all watched in awe of your dedication and commitment that is responsible for where you are today and where you are bound tomorrow. This past year you took that tenacity and diligence and poured it into your life at Gould – both skiing and academics – and succeeded in ways that still amaze us.

You have grown into a lovely person both inside and out and we are so proud of all your accomplishments.

We are excited to watch you thrive at Bates and are eager to know what's next on your path of success. The only question left lingering on our minds is why in the world did you ever stop wearing that stylish skiing outfit you rocked so well as a six-year-old? Who needs New England spandex when you have gaiters and a pink wind breaker?

Love,

"Liam, Congratulations on this milestone in your life. Three years ago a young boy went off to the wilds of Maine and came home a man. You have grown so much and with all the different charitable and leadership roles you have championed along with your hard work in the classroom I could not be any prouder of you than I am today. Thank you for using the talents God gave you to their fullest and continue to do so in the years to come. You are an amazing person.
All my love, Dad"

"From Li-Monster to Li-Man, you've grown into an amazing person. We're proud of who you've become over the last three years. Go rock the world. You'll do great!
Love, Katie and Brian"

"Wow Liam, your years at Gould have flown by! You have worked hard in class and on the playing fields. You have made friends and passionately dedicated your heart to helping others. I know it is that very passion which will take you far in the future. You will continue to make people smile as you do! Love you lots, Mom"

Congratulations Shannon! Great job! Mom and I know how hard you have worked. We love you so much and though we are not always with you, we think of you many times a day. We know you will have a good life and are capable of doing whatever it is you choose. Shannon, you continue to brighten our lives as you move along with yours!
